

Creative Brief

Panda Forest Linens is a fictional company specialising in 100% organic, eco-friendly bed sheets and other products. Their products include towels, pillows, sarongs, throws, and more.

Bed sheets are their number one selling product, however.

They are a company based in Australia, and their target market is Australia and New Zealand.

Below are three distinct pieces of copy for Panda Forest Linens: website copy, a promotional email, and an Instagram ad.

The website's and promotional email's intentions are to inform potential customers about the benefits of switching to bamboo bed sheets.

The social media ad is to draw attention to other seasonal products.

Never too hot, never too cold through thermal regulation

Maintaining an optimal body temperature is critical to a good night's sleep. Bamboo fibres naturally regulate temperatures so your body can rest in a deeper, healthier sleep.

- Three degrees cooler than regular sheets on a warm night
- Releases heat when warm and traps heat when cool
- Cosy on cool nights thanks to insulating properties
- Increased breathability for your skin
- Moisture-wicking abilities keeps you dry

Testimonial: "Fantastic choice for couples with one hot sleeper and one cold sleeper such as my husband and I. Once we started using their sheets, we slept better and had fewer disputes about fan and air conditioner settings." Andrea, 54, Sydney, Australia, Teacher.

Eco-friendly, Organic, & Ethical

Bamboo is part of the grass family and is one of the fastest-growing plants on Earth, making it one of the most renewable resources. Its eco-friendliness goes far beyond its growth rates:

- Zero pesticides or chemicals used to grow it
- Minimal water requirements
- 100% biodegradable
- Sustainable harvesting by preserving the root system
- Zero threat to panda habitats

Panda Bear Linens are Global Organic Textile Standard Certified, ensuring they are sourced and produced at the highest standard following sustainable and ethical practices.
